

Citizens Trust Boosts Pasadena Community Foundation

The Pasadena Community Foundation has received a $10,000 donation from Citizens Trust Wealth Management, a division of Citizens Business Bank.

“Citizens Trust does a really good job for us on the investment side,” said Jennifer DeVoll, executive director of the Pasadena Community Foundation. “On top of that, they support us in a philanthropic way.”

Sean C. Kraus, senior vice president and chief investment officer, said, “The Pasadena Community Foundation is one of our hallmark clients. They have so many programs to help the community. We spend a lot of time and effort tailoring our offerings for foundations and charities like Pasadena Community Foundation which, in turn, allows us to help out the community.”

Sean C. Kraus (left), chief investment officer and senior vice president of Citizens Trust, presents a check to Jennifer DeVoll, executive director of the Pasadena Community Foundation.